HAPPY BIRTHDAY, AMERICA!

Pop Those Trial Balloons!

Recently I was at an event with Eugene Scalia, Labor Secretary for President Trump and son of the late Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia. Because I had worked in DC and am a self-professed nerd, the evening's conversation quickly devolved to discussing proposed federal rules and regulations.

I loved hearing his views, so I'll briefly sum up why Secretary Scalia says your legal right to comment on proposed regulations is so vitally important:

Sometimes a Proposed Rule or Regulation is a "trial balloon." The feds know it's a questionable or bad idea that cannot withstand a court challenge, and it's one that Congress would never make into law. But the Feds will float it anyway, just to see how much public uproar there is. If they think it's likely conservatives will file a lawsuit to stop them, they'll pull it. And that's the power of your comments.

Deadline for gas-powered cars is JULY 5th! See article below.

Stop the push to end gas-powered cars!

Comment in the Federal Register TODAY!
Deadline: July 5, 2023

Proposed EPA Regulation Eliminates Most Family Vehicles

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) proposes strict emissions standards to virtually regulate passenger cars, pick-up trucks, vans and SUVs out of existence.

In just 9 years, these radical proposals will force us to buy electric vehicles (EVs).

Since Biden cannot convince Congress to go along with his extremist ideas, he is forcing them on us through federal regulations.

Talking points:

- Cars will become even more expensive.
- Electric vehicles average cost is almost $12,000 more than gas.
- Electric cars have shorter ranges without recharging.
- American jobs will be lost.
- Bad for our economy, bad for family budgets.
- Communist China controls EV battery production.
- Bid Pay day for Communist China.
- Loss of freedom of movement for We the People.
- Will make it difficult for workers to afford to travel to jobs.
- In 2022, 94% of all new vehicle were gas or hybrid.
- By 2032, just 9 years from now, gas and hybrid cars will be rare.
- Big Brother government is meddling in industry and in our lives.

Why are public comments important? See above "Trial Balloon" commentary. Biden wants to limit us, the public, from using our right to comment. Fight back!

You are invited!

The Lumbee Homecoming Parade is July 8th, and the Republican Women of the Lumber River invite NCFRW ladies from all over the state to ride in the parade with the RW of the Lumber River. One of our ladies and her husband have a farm and are providing their farm equipment trailer which is much larger

Political and Campaign Hours by 7/15

NFRW Deadline July 15

The campaign season is never really over, as we know from the exciting speakers who attend our meetings and conventions.

Politics and staying abreast of legislation are part of our daily lives. Why else are we members of NCFRW and NFRW if not for the fact that we are concerned for the future of our nation and engaged daily in staying current with the news and sharing that with friends and family?

With that in mind, it is time to estimate your Political Campaign hours and send them to your club president for 2023's first six months, from 1/1/2023 to 6/30/2023.

4th of July Spirit! by Penny Jordan

On July 4, 1776, the Continental Congress declared the 13 American colonies no longer subject to Britain's King George III. The first Independence Day celebration was on July 4, 1777, in Philadelphia.

As our great nation celebrates freedoms, consider ways to highlight Americanism:

- Support a Boys and Girls Club. Celebrate with them, teach our history, make a craft project, bring snacks and speak with them about our freedoms.
- Shop “American-made” products.
- Write letters of appreciation to local, state and federal leaders.
- With teens' help, clean up or organize a beautification project in your town.
- Visit a retirement home and present a patriotic program.
- Play some era-appropriate music and chat about the memories music brings.
- Decorate a common area at the Agency on Aging with era appropriate decor.

The Declaration of Independence reminds us who we are. What measures can you take to restore Americanism in your community? Let your voices to be heard!
