

Membership in the North Carolina Federation of Republican Women is comprised of registered Republican women in Clubs across the state of North Carolina. Currently there are 60 Clubs in North Carolina with approximately 2,000 members. There are five Vice Presidents who work with clubs in their region – Coastal, Capital, Central, Foothills and Mountain,

NCFRW is affiliated with the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW) and by joining a local club, you are not only a member of the NCFRW, but also the NFRW (www.nfrw.org). The NFRW is a national grassroots political organization with more than 1,800 local clubs and tens of thousands of members in 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam and the Virgin Islands, making it one of the largest women's political organizations in the country.

Our clubs are involved in campaigns, issue advocacy, political education and candidate recruitment. Our members are always excited to mentor new members, so that the knowledge they have can be passed to a new generation of Republican women.

In 2007, the NCFRW was very active in their effort to get the Jessica Lunsford Act passed in North Carolina. In 2008, our issues will expand to include Drivers' License Reform, Unborn Victim legislation, Marriage Amendment and Voter ID.

On a local level, our clubs are also involved in their communities, contributing both time and money to local causes.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the NCFRW, or would like to start a local Club in your area, please email Valerie White, NCFRW President at ncgopgal@hotmail.com or call 336-629-4311.
